

Text and illustrations: NATALIA COLOMBO
Translation: ESTHER SARFATTI

Hard-cover. 36 pages full colour. 20x20 cm.

Available in:

- English: "So close". Books for dreaming
ISBN 978-84-8464-681-5
- Spanish: "Cerca"
ISBN 978-84-96388-88-8
- Galician: "Cerca"
ISBN 978-84-8464-677-8
- Catalan: "A prop". Kalandraka-Hipòtesi
ISBN 978-84-935912-7-4
- Basque: "Hurbil". Kalandraka-Pamiela
ISBN 978-84-7681-564-9
- Portuguese: "Perto". Livros para Sonhar
ISBN 978-989-8205-00-1
- Italian: "Vicini". Libri per sognare
ISBN 978-88-95933-13-9

Price: 12 €

SO CLOSE

1st INTERNATIONAL COMPOSTELA PRIZE FOR PICTURE BOOKS 2008

Mr. Duck is going to work, like he does every day.
Mr. Rabbit is also going to work, like he does every day.
They always walk past each other...

With simplicity in substance and form, the winning entry of the 1st International Compostela Prize for Picture Books is a contemporary fable about the lack of communication; a poetic reflection on people and their emotions.

NATALIA COLOMBO (Buenos Aires, 1971)

She studied at the Architecture and Graphic Design Faculty of Buenos Aires, the city where she lives. She works for newspapers like La Nacion and takes part in art exhibitions. She also illustrates schoolbooks and picture books for children.

- Subjects: the lack of communication
- Recommended age: every ages
- Main themes: work awarded with the 1st International Compostela Prize for Picture Books; typography designed and hand-made by the author
- Applications: interpersonal relationships, individualism, human wishes and emotions

comunicacion@kalandraka.com | www.kalandraka.com